

The OCUFA STATUS OF WOMEN COMMITTEE Award of Distinction

The OCUFA Status of Women Committee Award of Distinction honours those who've improved the lives of women academic staff at Ontario universities.

The award recognizes distinguished contributions to the lives and working conditions of academic women staff, through either

- outstanding service to women's organizations;
- policy development or implementation;
- education and awareness efforts;
- political, legislative or collective bargaining advances; or
- feminist scholarship.

The deadline for nominations is May 25, 2012. Nominators must be members of an OCUFA-affiliated faculty association.

For nomination information, please see www.ocufa.on.ca, "Awards" section. Send nominations to the Chair, OCUFA Status of Women Committee, c/o OCUFA, 83 Yonge Street, Suite 300, Toronto, ON M5C 1S8.
