

Chair: Kimberly Ellis-Hale

Members: to be determined

The Action Committee's main role is the mobilization of Contract Faculty. Responsibilities vary by dates relative to collective bargaining and whether job action is required.

Prior to bargaining and until bargaining ends, the committee is responsible for:

1. the creation of a member network
2. consulting with and advising the Negotiating Team re: messaging that may be included with Team messaging re: process of negotiations, blast surveys, mobilization, etc.

If bargaining reaches an impasse (with no tentative agreement), the committee is responsible for:

1. the development of strategies to mobilize members over the summer in preparation for job-action vote/ job-action in the Fall term
2. the development of messaging via member network and/or via WLUFAs in consultation with the Negotiating Team
3. planning infrastructure for job action: spaces, tools, signs, etc.
4. determining "staffing" needs for job-action, including determining member roles and responsibilities during job action.
